

Biography

My name's Francesca Stangoni and I was born in Naples - Italy, where I graduated at the Oriental University Institute, specializing in Chinese language and culture. In 2000' I moved to the Marche region (Italy) where I currently live. I work in a private company, leader in the telecommunications. In the past years I managed several jobs in private sectors.

I have a solid experience in Theatre and Acting: I organized, wrote and directed musical involving artists from different genres: pop, oriental, lyrics, storytelling, acting, aerial fabrics, percussion, rock and classical music

During the Covid 19 pandemy, I started writing Movie scripts, screenplay and pitches for my films to be distributed in the Movie market

In 2020, I wrote, played and directed, my first short movie called PROVE DI POTERE (Evidence of Power) which won several national and international Film Festivals.

In April 2021 I played and directed my second short movie called IL SOGNO DI KOFI (Kofi's dream), an emotional video documentary talking about the hopeless journey of an African refugee.

In March 2022 I edited and directed a new short documentary called GUERRA & PACE (war & Peace), based on the Syrian conflict and on a real interview of a Kurdish Refugee.

In August 2023: I directed and played a new romance short movie called SHERAZADE where I play the role of a mysterious woman, previously involved in the drug and prostitution racket around Europe.

In March 2024 I directed and edited a new romance and animated project called LE STREGHE DI WICKLOW, where I play the role (as Voice over) of an old and bizarre witch leaving alone in the forest of the beautiful Irish country.

I believe in the power of the team cooperation with a brilliant and dynamic leadership
